Dear Diary,

Today, I tried to read a book. I became Robin Hood in the forest.

I met a hero called Little John. He was my friend. We always thought to help people. But there was an evil man. He wanted to arrest Robin Hood in the archery contest. I pretended to be another person and used three arrows to hit the bull's eye. I was very happy. Suddenly the evil man knew I was Robin Hood. He took out his knife. I was scared. Luckily, Little John saved me. We took the knife to kill him. I felt amazed. I could be a hero too.
