First Runner-Up: 5B Li Anson

The Sheriff of Nottingham also loves Lady Marion and thinks of a plan to kill Robin Hood. He tried holding an archery contest to lure Robin in a trap but made himself look stupid instead. The Sheriff went to Lady Marion's magnificent castle to woo her, he was heartbroken when Marion slammed the door in his face. The Sheriff needs a cure for a 'broken-heart' so he went to The Witch's hut, he didn't notice Little John and Will Scarlet spying on him behind a moor. The Witch of Papplenick, Maudlin, works for the Sheriff, she gave him a bark of an aspirin tree for his heart. At the same time, Little John and Will Scarlet were running back to Robin Hood. They reported to Robin about the Sheriff's weakness: Lady Marion.

Robin and Friar Tuck had an idea, they went to Lady Marion's castle. Robin asked Lady Marion to help him defeat the evil Sheriff, she agreed immediately. That evening, the Sheriff went to say 'goodnight' to Lady Marion, only to be shot. The Sheriff was shot in the arm by Robin, who, was hiding in Lady Marion's cottage. Little John and Will Scarlet ran out from behind the moor and seized the Sheriff (who lay unconscious with a terrified face on the soft grass), they frogmarched him and put a sign on him: Evil Sheriff – Shot by ROBIN of LOXLEY.

From that day on, King Richard rules Nottingham once more. Robin Hood and his Merry Men live in Sherwood Forest and serve Maid Marion.
