

Drama Writing Competition P.3-4

Merit: 3B Ho Shun Him

Dear Diary,

Today, my dad gave me a book called Robin Hood. I read the book and I became Robin Hood. I didn't know how to pronounce some words and Phonics Fairy helped me. He also taught me to use pictures, context clues and compound words in reading. In the end, I and Little John defeated the bad guy the Sheriff of Nottingham.

Now I love reading because I can use my imagination.
