

Drama Writing Competition P.3-4

Merit: 4A Li Sze Yui

Dear Diary,

When I was reading the book of Robin Hood, I had a wonderful adventure in the kingdom of learning. In the adventure I was Robin Hood and met my good friend Little John and the bad guy the sheriff.

In the kingdom of learning, I learnt how to “wound out the words”, “look at pictures”, “use context clues” and “split compound words”.

Also, Robin Hood and Little John finally defeated the sheriff.

I was very excited with the learning experience and now have much fun in reading.
